

I do not think the federal government should override state governments with regards to telemarketing policies. It has been wonderful not to receive telemarketing calls CONSTANTLY like we did prior to Indiana's new law. PLEASE don't let that happen. As United States citizens, we have a right to privacy in our own homes!